The following treaty was read, referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs, and ordered to be printed, in confidence, for the Senate.

Articles of a treaty made and concluded at the City of Washington, in the District of Columbia, between Henry R. Schoolcraft, commissioner on the part of the United States, and the Ottawa and Chippewa nations of Indians, by their chiefs and delegates.

ARTICLE 1. The Ottawa and Chippewa nations of Indians cede to the United States all the tract of country within the following boundaries: Beginning at the mouth of Grand river of Lake Michigan, on the north bank thereof, and following up the same to the line called for in the first article of the treaty of Chicago of the 29th of August, 1821; thence, in a direct line, to the head of Thunder-bay river; thence with the line established by the treaty of Saganaw of the 24th of September, 1819, to the mouth of said river; thence northeast to the boundary line in Lake Huron, between the United States and the British province of Upper Canada; thence northwardly, following the said line, as established by the commissioners acting under the treaty of Ghent, through the straits, and river St. Mary's, to a point in Lake Superior, north of the mouth of Gilchty Seeling, or Chocololate river; thence south to the mouth of said river, and up its channel to the source thereof; thence, in a direct line, to the head of the Skonawba river of Green bay; thence down the south bank of said river to its mouth; thence, in a direct line, through the ship channel into Green bay, to the outer part thereof; thence south to a point in Lake Michigan, west of the north cape, or entrance of Grand river, and thence east to the place of beginning, at the cape aforesaid, comprehending all the lands and islands within these limits not hereinafter reserved.

ART. 2. From the cession aforesaid, the tribes reserve for their own use, to be held in common, the following tracts, namely: One tract of fifty thousand acres, to be located on little Traverse bay; one tract of twenty thousand acres, to be located on the north shore of Grand Traverse bay; one tract of seventy thousand acres, to be located on or north of the Pietre Marquette river; one tract of one thousand acres, to be located by Chingassanoo, or the Big Sail, on the Cheboigan; one tract of one thousand acres, to be located by Mujeeekewis, on Thunder-bay river.

ART. 3. There shall also be reserved for the use of the Chippewas living north of the straits of Michilimackinac, the following tracts, that is to say: Two tracts, of three miles square each, on the north shores of the said straits, between Point-au-Barbe and Mille Cocquin river, including the fishing grounds in front of such reservations, to be located by Gales & Seaton, print.
a council of the chiefs. The Beaver islands of Lake Michigan for the use of the Beaver-island Indians. Round island, opposite Michilimackinac, is reserved for the Indian Department. The islands of the Chenos, with a part of the adjacent north coast of Lake Huron, corresponding in length, and one mile in depth. Sugar island, with its islets, in the river of St. Mary's. Six hundred and forty acres at the mission of the Little Rapids. A tract commencing at the mouth of the Pississoming river, south of Point Iroquois; thence running up said stream to its forks; thence westward, in a due north line, to the Red-water lakes; thence across the portage to the Tacumseon river, and down the same to its mouth, including the small islands and fishing grounds in front of this reservation. Six hundred and forty acres on Grand island, and two thousand acres on the main land south of it. Two sections on the northern extremity of Green bay, to be located by a council of the chiefs. All the locations left indefinite by this and the preceding articles, shall be made by the proper chiefs, under the direction of the President. It is understood that the reservation for a place of fishing and eneampment, made under the treaty of St. Mary's of the 16th of June, 1820, remains unaffected by this treaty.

Art. 4. In consideration of the foregoing cessions, the United States engage to pay to the Ottawa and Chippewa nations the following sums, namely: 1st. An annuity of thirty thousand dollars per annum, in specie, for twenty years; eighteen thousand dollars to be paid to the Indians between Grand river and the Cheboigian; three thousand six hundred dollars to the Indians on the Huron shore, between the Cheboigian and Thunder-bay river; and seven thousand four hundred dollars to the Chippewa nation. For the purposes of education, teachers, school-houses, and books, in their own language, to be continued twenty years, and as long thereafter as Congress may appropriate for the object. 3d. Three thousand dollars for missions, subject to the conditions mentioned in the second clause of this article. 4th. Ten thousand dollars for agricultural implements, cattle, mechanics' tools, and such other objects as the President may deem proper. 5th. Three hundred dollars per annum for vaccine matter, medicines, and the services of physicians, to be continued while the Indians remain on their reservations. 6th. Provisions to the amount of two thousand dollars; six thousand five hundred pounds of tobacco; one hundred barrels of salt, and five hundred fish barrels, annually, for twenty years. 7th. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in goods and provisions, on the ratification of this treaty, to be delivered at Michilimackinac.

Art. 5. The sum of three hundred thousand dollars shall be set apart for the payment of just debts against the said Indians. All claims for such debts shall be examined by a commissioner to be appointed by the President and Senate, who shall act under such instructions as may be given to him, by the order of the President, for the purpose of preventing the allowance of unjust claims. The investigation shall be made at Michilimackinac, and no claims shall be allowed, except such as were contracted by Indians living within the district of country hereby ceded, and to citizens or residents of the United States. No claim shall be paid out of this fund, unless the claimant will receive the sum allowed to him as full payment of all debts due to him by the said Indians. If the fund fall short of the full amount of just debts, then a ratable division shall be made. If it exceed such amount, the balance shall be paid over to the Indians in the same manner that annuities are required by law to be paid.

Art. 6. The said Indians being desirous of making provision for their half-breed relatives, and the President having determined that individual reservations shall not be granted, it is agreed that, in lieu thereof, the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be set apart as a fund for said relatives, to be equally divided among all the persons who shall be entitled to any part of said fund, unless he is of Indian descent, and actually resident within the boundaries described in the first article of this treaty; nor shall anything be allowed to any such person who may have received any allowance at any previous Indian treaty. The following principles shall regulate the distribution: A census shall be taken of all the men, women, and children, coming within this article. As the Indians hold in higher consideration some of their half-breeds than others, and as there is much difference in their capacity to use and take care of property, and, consequently, in their power to aid their Indian connexion, which furnishes a strong ground for this claim, it is therefore agreed that, at the council to be held upon this subject, the commissioner shall call upon the Indian chiefs to designate some persons, to form a committee, who shall divide the said fund of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, among such persons into three classes, one-half of which shall receive one-half more than the second, and the second, double the third; each man, woman, and child, shall be enumerated, and an equal share, in the respective classes, shall be allowed to each. If the father is living with the family, he shall receive the shares of himself, his wife and children. If the father is dead, or separated from the family, and the mother is living with the family, she shall have her own share and that of the children. If the father and mother are neither living with the family, or if the children are orphans, their share shall be retained till they are twenty-one years of age, provided that such portions of it as may be necessary may, under the direction of the President, be from time to time applied for their support. All other persons, at the age of twenty-one years, shall receive their shares agreeably to the proper class. Out of the said fund of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, the sum of five thousand dollars shall be reserved to be applied, under the direction of the President, to the support of such of the poor half-breeds as may require assistance, to be expended in annual instalments for the term of ten years, commencing with the second year. Such of the half-breeds as may be judged incapable of making a proper use of the money delivered to them by the commissioner, shall receive the same in instalments, as the President may direct.

Art. 7. In consideration of the cessions above made, and as a further earnest of the disposition felt to do full justice to the Indians, and to further their well-being, the United States engage to keep two additional blacksmith shops, one of which shall be located on the reservation north of Grand river, and the other at the Saull Ste. Marie. A permanent in-Edward Biddle, for one section to his Indian family, at the fishing grounds, five persons for a section of land above said rapids, at the rate of ten dollars an acre; to William Lasley, Joseph Daily, Joseph Trotter, Henry A. Levake, for two sections each, for their Indian families, at one dollar and twenty-five cents; to Luther Rice, Joseph Lafrombois, Charles Butterfield, being of Indian descent, and to George Moran, Louis Moran, G. D. Williams, for half-breed children under their care, and to Daniel Marsac, for his Indian child, one section each, at one dollar and twenty-five cents.

Art. 9. Whereas the Ottawas and Chippewas, feeling a strong consideration for aid rendered by certain of the half-breeds on Grand river, and other parts of the country ceded, and wishing to testify their gratitude on the present occasion, have assigned such individuals certain locations of land, and united in a strong appeal, for the allowance of the same in this treaty: and whereas no such reservations can be permitted in carrying out the special directions of the President on this subject, it is agreed that, in addition to the general fund set apart for half-breed claims, in the sixth article, the sum of forty-eight thousand one hundred and twenty-five cents; to Eliza Cook, Sophia Biddle, and Mary Holiday, one section of land each, at two dollars and fifty cents; to Augustin Hamelin, jun., being of Indian descent, two sections, at one dollar and twenty-five cents; to William Lasley, Joseph Daily, Joseph Trotter, Henry A. Levake, for two sections each, for their Indian families, at one dollar and twenty-five cents; to Luther Rice, Joseph Lafrombois, Charles Butterfield, being of Indian descent, and to George Moran, Louis Moran, G. D. Williams, for half-breed children under their care, and to Daniel Marsac, for his Indian child, one section each, at one dollar and twenty-five cents.

Art. 10. The sum of thirty thousand dollars shall be paid to the chiefs, on the ratification of this treaty, to be divided agreeably to a schedule hereunto annexed.

Art. 11. The Ottawas having consideration for one of their aged chiefs, who is reduced to poverty, and it being known that he was a firm friend of the American Government, in that quarter, during the late war, and suffered much in consequence of his sentiments, it is agreed that an annuity of one hundred dollars per annum shall be paid to Ningweegon, or the Wing, during his natural life, in money or goods, as he may choose. Another of the chiefs of said nation, who attended the treaty of Greenville, in 1793, and is now, at a very advanced age, reduced to extreme want, together with his wife, and the Government being apprised that he has pleaded a promise of General Wayne, in his behalf, it is agreed that Chusco, of Michilimackinac, shall receive an annuity of fifty dollars per annum, during his natural life.

Art. 12. All expenses attending the journeys of the Indians from and to their homes, and their visit at the seat of Government, together with the expenses of the treaty, including a proper quantity of clothing to be given them, will be paid by the United States.

Art. 13. The Indians stipulate for the right of hunting on the lands ceded, with the other usual privileges of occupancy, until the land is required for settlement.

Commissioner.

To guard against misconstruction in some of the foregoing provisions, and to secure, by further limitations, the just rights of the Indians, it is hereby agreed that no claims, under the fifth article, shall be allowed for any debts contracted previous to the late war with Great Britain, or for goods supplied by foreigners to said Indians, or by citizens, who did not withdraw from the country, during this temporary occupancy by foreign troops, for any trade carried on, by such persons, during the said period.
And it is also agreed that no person receiving any commutation for a reservation, or any portion of the fund provided by the sixth article of this treaty, shall be entitled to the benefit of any of the annuities herein stipulated. Nor shall any of the half-breeds, or blood relatives of the said tribes, commuted with, under the provisions of the ninth article, have any further claim on the general commutation fund, set apart to satisfy reservation claims, in the said sixth article. It is also under-
